

ST THOMAS MORE COLLEGE

Modern rooms, a convenient and spacious location and a welcoming community feel are just some of the things that make St Thomas More College (Tommy) a great place to live while studying at university in Perth.

Living away from home can be pretty daunting. New faces, new ways of working, and the looming deadline of an important assignment are just a few of the things you can look forward to.

So, at Tommy, we take care of the day-to-day things so you can concentrate on your studies and enjoy other aspects of your university life.

You'll have your own fully furnished room - with unlimited internet access - and we'll take care of the mundane things, like cleaning. We provide either two or three delicious meals each day and have plenty of communal and recreation spaces in our modern campus, which you'll share with 399 new lifelong friends from across WA and the globe.

But, life at Tommy is about so much more than having a well-appointed room with Matilda Bay and UWA at your front doorstep and Kings Park as your backyard. Community is at the heart of everything we do at Tommy More. Nobody gets left behind.

This philosophy extends to our wealth of inclusive and regular social gatherings, from Fringe Fest to O Week (which just quietly might be the best week of your life), sporting competitions to inter-wing sporting matches. And our College prides itself on helping others with a diverse and active Outreach and Social Justice program that includes our very own on-site Op Shop, volunteering at Ronald McDonald House, participation in a wide range of fundraising activities, and an annual trip to visit vulnerable children in Cambodia.

I chose to come to Tommy More because I heard it was a great way to get started in uni life, while also being a great opportunity to make friends. Before I arrived, I was really nervous about not knowing anyone, but that quickly went away because I realised everyone's in the same boat and eager to meet new people. It's nothing like school. Everyone is here for one another and the events that we have here at Tommy and within the RSD are a great way to get to know other people within the college community and are always really fun!

I came to Tommy More because I had a great boarding experience. I wanted to continue that lifestyle into university and have a community around me.

College is like the accommodation side of boarding in that you have a place to sleep and are surrounded by friends, but it's been refreshing not to have to sign in and out and have so much more freedom. I have independence, but the ability to fall back on support if I need it.

One of the things I love most about college is the number of events planned. There's always something on, even if it's just playing a game of basketball with your mates. It's such an easy lifestyle! I don't have to cook or clean my room and the staff are great.

I underrated the impact a good social environment can make, and Tommy More is a great place full of great people. Living at College provides a social and cultural environment unlike anywhere else and the opportunity is only available while you're at university.

I chose Tommy More based off all the positive feedback I had heard from life at college. I was really looking for a place where I could meet new people, make friends for life and I felt Tommy was the best place to achieve this.

When considering where to live when I moved to Perth, I didn't really consider any other colleges, because I just knew Tommy was where I was going to go. Practically everyone from Geraldton goes here, and it was nice to know that I wouldn't be alone. I had no expectations going in, as I didn't want to get my hopes up, and I'm so glad I didn't, because it turned out to be one of the best experiences in my life.

Being at Tommy is special because it's so much more than a place to live. I went to boarding school for six years, and thought it would be just dreadful, but I was so wrong. It's a community, we all look out for each other, and there will always be someone to guide you.
